

Karolina Wołkowiecka

(Poland, 1975)

She graduated from the National Ballet School in Warsaw. Between 1994 and 1996 she had danced at the National Theatre in Warsaw. In 1996 she received a scholarship of the European Union and the Flemish Government for the studies at P.A.R.T.S., Brussels. After graduating she participated in several international projects "X- group" (2000) and "DanceWeb Europe" (2005). As a dancer and choreographer she worked - among others - with Anabel Schelekkens, Kosmas Kosmopoulos, Kris Verdonck, Sato Endo, Greet Vissers, In- vitro vzw. and Manuela Rastaldi. In 2007 she started MA studies in dance pedagogy. Currently she is teaching contemporary and classical dance for children, teenagers and adults, while working on her own artistic projects. She has been cooperating with U/LOI since 2008.
